

A woman with dark curly hair, wearing a red zip-up hoodie, stands on the left, holding a blue folder with a red and white design. She is looking towards a man on the right. The man has short grey hair, wears glasses, a white shirt, a dark tie, and a dark suit jacket. They are standing in a large, ornate hall with rows of wooden benches and a balcony with statues in the background. The lighting is dramatic, with warm tones from the interior lights.
